

spanish/mediterranean residence

7920 Valmont Road, Boulder, Colorado

This single-family residence located in Northeast Boulder was designed to merge old world Spanish/Mediterranean design with all the comforts of modern technology. Details reminiscent of classic Spanish architecture were incorporated throughout the home in the arched forms, tilework, roofing & stucco materials, balustrades, ironwork and feature windows. It includes four bedrooms, a media room, sunroom, four-and-a-half baths, a four-car garage and finished attic space. The owners enjoy expansive views of the Front Range and Rocky Mountains from the western-facing windows and outdoor balconies.
